condifer the following resolutions::

- 1 that the assembled picnickers be congratulated on their intestinal fortitude for promising us a key for the park. But having been duly elected have sent instead an invoice for the use of the park.
- 2 That the assembled picnickers consign the said invoice to the BBQ flames.
- 3 That the assembled picnickers note with concern that our Councillor L has strategically absente himself overseas on some junket trip at this time of great challenge for AVERT, and that he be required to buy the first round of drinks on his return.

Changes at Emergency Management Office

The attached information sheet from the Wellington Region Emergency Management Office (WREMO) has discontinued the ReadyNet site of emergency information and now offers text messages services for which you need to enrol as explained in the document.
